#2 Friends of the Transcendentalists

Starting Bid $40

The annual meeting of the FOTs will meet at the home of one of the forward thinking minister's of the west Phoenix valley. Rev. Karen Rice, who has spent many hours in long conversation with the likes of Ralph Waldo Emerson, Emma Curtis Hopkins and Virginia Woolf, has volunteered to lead the event and record the collective results for further consideration. Deep thinkers are encouraged to bid high for the privilege of participating in this important Think Tank. The theme for this year is How to Make the World a Better Place. (Period costumes suggested but not required.) Light refreshments served. Champagne or sparkling wine.

#4 Games With Cake

Starting Bid $40

No cakes will be harmed in this event. In fact, cake, pie and cookies may show up in this dessert only event. Participants will learn a very easy interactive game requiring little or no skill whatsoever. It is based on the old classroom game, "Telephone" where a statement is whispered in someone's ear and goes from person to person and you see how much is lost in the process of passing information. However, in this version of the game, the clues are passed on a tablet and not spoken out loud. A hoot of fun guaranteed to make you laugh! Wine also served.
